

Incomparable Win-Win Cooperation Platform

International Mechanical Processing Technology Development Forum 2015 April 21, 2015 Beijing•China

April 21, 2015
Beijing • China
Crowne Plaza Beijing International Airport

How to process more effectively and speedy? How to shorten the gap between developing and developed countries' manufacturing industry?

The questions above are consistently the challenges for domestic processing companies during the years. This session will focus on state of the art technology, and lead to meet and solve mechanical processing difficulties. Wish it could let delegates share opinions, communicate, cooperate and at the same time gain new technology and solutions to help companies transform and upgrade for better adaption to market development trend.

Owing to Ringier's successful experience of holding high performance processing conferences for years, many delegates recognize it is an Incomparable Win-Win Cooperation Platform.

The Forum will hold at the same period of CIMT in Beijing, gathering so many industry elites for a technology communication feast
